

Justice in Crisis
IDLO Partnership Forum 2022

Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of Italy and Online
30 November 2022 | 3:00 to 4:30 pm CET

SPEAKER BIO

Ms. Lilia Umaña Montiel, Executive Director, Humanamente

Ms. Montiel successfully ventured into politics, becoming the first female Vice Mayor of the second most important city in the country (2014-2021). She strongly promoted the restructuring of the social agenda of the city, with important results in the implementation of social protection programs and mechanisms, from the proposal of public policies and social management instruments in association with international organizations. Leading the issues of transparency, violence prevention, health, and social protection. She coordinated the relationship with the Secretaries of State in matters of children, women, and human rights. She's an active member of the Latin American Network of Sub-national Governments of Management for Results of the IDB. Since her academic training and her performance in the private sector, she has been recognized for her contribution in the areas of administration, marketing, corporate social responsibility through the design and implementation of social programs aligned with the SDGs. She is recognized for her commitment to the defense of human rights, and policy management in favor of women, children, people with disabilities and older adults and as a promoter of artistic movements and cultural development of the city. She's also an active participant in the country's politics and a party trainer.