SPEAKER BIO

Mr. Yukihiro Hamada, Programme Manager, International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance (IDEA)

In his current role at International IDEA, an intergovernmental organization of 34 member states with HQ in Stockholm, Dr Yukihiro Hamada leads the Money in Politics (MiP) programme that supports political finance reforms across the world by providing evidence-based policy analysis and technical assistance to oversight agencies, political parties, civil society organizations and other stakeholders. His areas of expertise include comparative analysis of political party and campaign finance regulations, and digital solutions for transparency and anti-corruption.

Prior to joining International IDEA in 2018, he was a policy analyst at the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) in Paris where he managed various projects relating to political finance, lobbying, conflict of interest and other public sector integrity issues. He also has a wide range of public sector experience in Japan and the UK. He holds a PhD in Political Science from University College London, UK.
