
CALL FOR SUB-PROJECT CONCEPT NOTES

PROMOTING INCREASED ACCOUNTABILITY FOR SEXUAL AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE IN LIBERIA

July 4th, 2016

The International Development Law Organization (IDLO) is an inter-governmental organization exclusively devoted to promoting the rule of law. In 2016, the organization launched a two-year program in Liberia funded by the U.S. Department of State: “Promoting Increased Accountability for Sexual and Gender-Based Violence in Liberia.” The Program focuses on two main objectives:

1. Enhancing the Efficiency, Transparency and Accountability of Criminal Court “E” - Montserrado County; and
2. Improving Access to Justice and Protection Mechanisms for Victims of Sexual and Gender-Based Violence (SGBV)

IDLO is responsible for the overall management of the Program. To encourage innovative, needs-based approaches, IDLO is seeking to provide sub-grants to NGOs for projects that will help improve access to justice and protection mechanisms for survivors of SGBV in Montserrado County. Implementing partners are sought to provide services under the three key areas listed below:

- Support Services for SGBV survivors
- Justice Sector Monitoring of SGBV cases
- Awareness Raising on SGBV

Interested organizations are invited to download application guidelines and concept note template at:
