

---

Xie Wei

Director of Department of Treaty and Law, Ministry of Commerce, China

Xie Wei works in the Ministry of Commerce (MOFCOM) in Beijing, as head of unit in Department of Treaty and Law.

He has been working for the Mission of China to the European Union in Brussels for five years, as First Secretary in Economic and Trade Office, in charge of bilateral relations, trade and investment policy.

Before that, he worked in MOFCOM between 2002 and 2012.

His working experience includes World Trade Organization (WTO) disputes settlement, participating in the UN Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) working groups, and drafting legislation instruments.

Xie Wei graduated from the Law School of Dalian Maritime University (1999) and he holds a master degree of International Economic Law from the same university (2002).